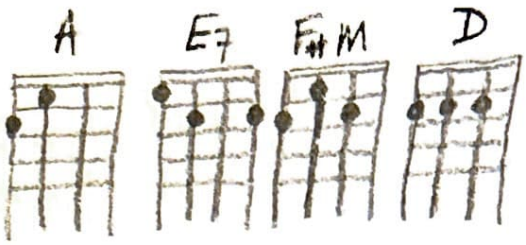
In Tall Buildings By John Hartford 1971



A E7 F#m A
Someday, my baby, when I am a man
D E7 A E7
And others have taught me the best that they can
A E7 F#m A
They'll sell me a suit, cut off my hair
D E7 A E7
And send me to work in tall buildings

A E7 F#m A
So it's goodbye to the sunshine, goodbye to the dew
D E7 A E7
Goodbye to the flowers, and goodbye to you
A E7 F#m A
I'm off to the subway, I must not be late
D E7 A E7
I'm going to work in tall buildings

A E7 F#m A
Now when I retire, my life is my own
D E7 A E7
I made all the payments, it's time to go home
A E7 F#m A
And I wonder what happened, Betwixt and between
D E7 A E7
When I went to work in tall buildings

A E7 F#m A
So it's goodbye to the sunshine, goodbye to the dew
D E7 A E7
Goodbye to the flowers, and goodbye to you
A E7 F#m A
I'm off to the subway, I must not be late
D E7 A E7
I'm going to work in tall buildings

Instrumental:
A E7 F#m A D E7 A E7 (X2)

A E7 F#m A
So it's goodbye to the sunshine, goodbye to the dew
D E7 A E7
Goodbye to the flowers, and goodbye to you
A E7 F#m A
I'm off to the subway, I must not be late
D E7 A [redacted]
I'm going to work in tall buildings